ARTICLE 6
SALE OF UNITS

a) The prospective unitholder must submit an application to the M.F.M.C. in the manner specified by it, which must then check the unitholder's identity,

b) the Key Investor Information document must be provided before submitting the application to acquire units, and

c) payment to the Custodian of the entire value of units in cash and/or, provided that they are accepted by the M.F.M.C., in transferable securities within the meaning of Article 3(o) of the law which are listed on multilateral trading facilities within the meaning of Article 4(19) of Law 4514/2018.

4. In order to protect the interests of existing unitholders, the M.F.M.C. may activate a levy mechanism to prevent the dilution of the Fund's asset value (anti-dilution levies - ADLs) so that the cost of restructuring the Fund's portfolio related to the management of significant amounts of new subscriptions is not borne by the Fund's net assets, but by the prospective new unitholders. The mechanism, if triggered, provides for the payment by prospective new unitholders of a percentage levy, in addition to the subscription fee, on the net amount of the subscription of the Fund on a particular day or for a particular period. The daily limit of the subscriptions amount above which this mechanism is triggered, as well as the maximum percentage of levies to prevent dilution of the Fund's asset value, is set out in the Fund's prospectus and key information document and may change over time if the factors affecting it change.

The same also applies to existing Fund unitholders where some of the information already provided has changed. Where the M.F.M.C. or persons authorized by it considers, based on that information, that the Fund is not suitable for the prospective unitholder or an existing one, it is obliged to warn him about this. If the prospective unitholder does not provide the said information or if it provides inadequate information, the M.F.M.C. or persons authorised by it are obliged to warn him that for that reason they cannot determine to what extent the specific Fund is suitable for him. Moreover, if units in the Fund are sold on the initiative of the potential or existing unitholder, it is not mandatory to obtain the said information provided that the prospective or existing unitholder has first been notified in writing that for that reason the M.F.M.C. or persons authorized by it are not obliged to evaluate the suitability of the

6. The acceptance of applications for participation in the Fund shall be decided by the M.F.M.C. in accordance with the terms of these Regulations and subject to the condition that no suspension of the redemption of the Fund's units has been imposed, in accordance with the following under Article 7. The M.F.M.C. may, for objective reasons, suspend or definitively discontinue the issue of units. Objective reasons include, inter alia, the coverage of a maximum number of units, a maximum net asset limit or the end of the subscription period.

7. Units of the Fund are not aimed at citizens or residents of the United States of America and therefore applications from prospective unitholders belonging to the above categories to acquire units of the Fund will not be submitted to or accepted by the M.F.M.C.

ARTICLE 7
REDEMPTION OF UNITS

1. Redemption of units in the Fund on an application submitted by the unitholder in a manner specified by the M.F.M.C. is mandatory.

2. The application should state at the unitholder's discretion the number of units to be redeemed or the amount he wishes to collect.

3. Units are redeemed at the redemption price of units on the date the redemption application is submitted. That price shall be calculated in accordance with Article 8 of these Regulations based on the value of the Fund's unit on the date the application is submitted. The value of the redeemed Fund units shall be paid in cash within 5 working days of the submission of the application for unit redemption. The M.F.M.C. may - without being obliged to - provide for a notice period of a maximum of ten (10) working days between the date of submission of redemption requests and the date of settlement of the redemption orders for units. This measure may be triggered when the liquidity of the assets in which the Fund has invested is not sufficient for the timely payment of the redemption value of the units at a fair price. The M.F.M.C. shall immediately inform the Capital Market Commission of the activation of the measure.

In order to protect the interests of unitholders, the M.F.M.C. may activate the mechanism of Article 6.4, so that the cost of restructuring the Fund's portfolio, related to the management of significant amounts of redemptions, is not borne by the Fund's net assets, but by the unitholders who submit redemption requests. The mechanism, if triggered, provides for the payment of a percentage levy, in addition to the redemption fee, by the unitholders requesting redemption, on the net redemption amount on a particular day or for a particular period. The daily limit of the redemptions amount, above which this mechanism is triggered, as well as the maximum percentage of levies to dilution of the Fund's asset value, is set out in accordance with the provisions of Article 6.4 above.

4. In exceptional cases, when circumstances so require and when required in the interests of unitholders, following a request from the M.F.M.C. the redemption of units in the Fund may be suspended for a period of up to 3 months where permission to that effect is obtained from the Hellenic Capital Market Commission. That suspension may be extended for a further 3 months maximum. The suspension of redemption and its expiry or revocation shall be posted on the M.F.M.C.'s website. The notice of suspension of redemption will also state the expiry date thereof. No application for redemption may be submitted by unitholders during such time as the redemption of units in UCITS is suspended.

5. The Hellenic Capital Market Commission may issue a reasoned decision suspending the redemption of units bearing in mind the interests of the Fund and the capital market. No application for subscription or redemption may be submitted by unitholders during the suspension of redemption of Fund units..

6. In order to protect the interests of unitholders and, by extension, the capital market, the M.F.M.C. may introduce a mechanism to restrict the execution of redemption (redemption gates) in cases deemed necessary due to exceptional circumstances. Such circumstances arise in particular when:

- (a) irrespective of the normal conduct of the investment strategy, the level of redemption requests is so high that, taking into account the liquidity level of the Fund's assets, redemption orders cannot be executed on terms that protect the interests or ensure equal treatment of unitholders,
- (b) redemption requests are made in circumstances that may undermine the integrity of the market.

In applying the above, the redemption limit is determined as a percentage of the redemption request and is the same (percentage) for all unitholders who have submitted a redemption request on the day the limit is imposed. In this case, the unitholders who have submitted a redemption request shall be informed specifically and by a durable medium of this fact.

The part of the redemption orders that remains unexecuted shall be automatically resubmitted for execution on the next redemption request date and shall not have priority over new redemption orders submitted by unitholders on that day.

The redemption percentage limit beyond which the M.F.M.C. may decide to partially execute the redemption orders of a date is set at 5% and the calculation method is explained in the prospectus.

The maximum duration of the redemption limit mechanism is determined based on the characteristics of the Mutual Fund, such as the daily frequency of calculation of Net Asset Value, investment policy, and liquidity of its assets. The maximum duration of the redemption restriction mechanism is 20 business days within a 3 month period.

The method of applying this mechanism and the way of determining the redemption limit shall be defined in the Liquidity Risk Management Policy of the M.F.M.C..

The M.F.M.C. shall inform the Capital Market Commission and the investing public both of its decision to apply a redemption limit and of the withdrawal of the restrictions it has applied, as soon as possible by any appropriate means and at least by posting on its website.

ARTICLE 8

VALUATION OF FUND ASSETS - NET ASSET ADJUSTMENT MECHANISM (SWING PRICING)

1. The M.F.M.C. shall value the Fund's assets using the accounting rules adopted in a decision of the Hellenic Capital Market Commission.

2. a) The value of the Fund's net assets shall be calculated in accordance with the applicable legislation. In order to compute the value of the Fund's net assets, the fees and commission of the M.F.M.C., Custodian and members of regulated markets, the cost of publications mandated by Law, the expenses payable by the Fund in accordance with the Regulations, and the profits distributed to unitholders when valued at the end of the year shall be deducted. Account shall also be taken of the possible activation of the subsequent net asset adjustment mechanism and/or the impairment prevention levy mechanism, as described in Articles 6.4 and 7.6 above. With the exception of publications which are mandatory under the law in force from time to time, any other publication relating to the Fund shall be made at the M.F.M.C.'s expense.

b) In order to calculate the net price of each unit in the Fund, the total value of its net assets shall be divided by the total number of units. The sale price and redemption price for Fund units may exceed or be less than the unit net price respectively by a figure corresponding to the sales or redemption commission.

3. In order to protect the interests of unitholders and by way of derogation of the above, a mechanism for adjusting the net unit price is provided for, so that the cost of revaluation of the Fund's portfolio due to the subscriptions and redemptions of that significantly affect its valuation is borne by investors who request the subscription or redemption of units, in order to reduce the burden on the remaining unitholders. The net asset value resulting after this adjustment is the reference value for the payment of the redemption value to the unitholders or the receipt of the subscription amount. The adjusted net asset value and net unit price are published and represent the net asset value and net unit price of the Fund.

The M.F.M.C. may activate the net unit price adjustment mechanism if the net inflows or outflows exceed the "activation threshold", as defined in the Fund's prospectus.

The Fund's prospectus includes the basic principles of the policy for the above mechanism, the maximum percentage of the adjustment factor (swing factor) applicable at any one time, the impact of the mechanism on unitholders redeeming or acquiring units, reference to the types of costs included in the indexation factor including any commissions, transaction taxes and liquidity costs and reference to the decision-making process and determination of the net asset indexation factor.

4. In the event that the M.F.M.C. decides to activate the swing pricing mechanism or to increase the maximum percentage of the adjustment factor (swing factor), as well as to discontinue these measures, the investors of the Fund are immediately informed by any appropriate measure as well as the Hellenic Capital Market Commission.

5. The net assets of the Fund, the number of units, the net unit price, the sale price and the redemption price of units, are computed for each working day and posted on the M.F.M.C.'s website.

ARTICLE 9
COMMISSION - FEES AND OTHER EXPENSES PAID FROM FUND ASSETS AND BY UNITHOLDERS

All manner of fees, commission and other expenses referred to in these Regulations shall be borne either by the assets of the Fund or by its unitholders. These include the following and/or any others specified in a provision of law or a circular from the Hellenic Capital Market Commission.

1. The commission, fees and other expenses payable from Fund assets are:

a) the management fee which includes the M.F.M.C.'s fee, the investment advisor's fee, the legal or other consultant's fee and/or the fee of the Fund M.F.M.C. who may have been assigned such duties, which shall be paid after the end of each calendar month and shall be calculated at the Mutual Fund's average daily value. The management fee is set out in the table below for each class of units.

Unit Classes	Classic	Classic D	Classic G	Privilege	Privilege D	Institutional	Institutional D
Maximum annual management fee rate	3.00%	3.00%	3.00%	3.00%	3.00%	1.50%	1.50%

b) a variable performance fee of up to 25% of any performance generated, which is defined as the positive difference between the return on the net price of a unit in each Class and the return on the benchmark rate applicable from time to time.

The daily yield for each Class of units is the quotient of the difference between the net unit price for each Class of units per day from the previous day and the net unit price for the previous day. The daily yield of the benchmark is the quotient of the difference in the value of the benchmark on each day from the previous day divided by the previous day's benchmark value.

The performance fee (if applicable) shall be calculated daily and shall be charged to the net unit price of each Class. The basis for calculating the performance fee is the assets of the previous day for each Class of unit times the daily variable performance. A key condition for calculating the daily performance fee for each Class of units is that there is performance in the evaluation period which is one calendar year, with the reference date being 31 December of the previous year. When a Class of units is created during a calendar year, the evaluation period shall use as its reference date the day on which the Class of units was created.

Where a Class under-performs compared to the performance benchmark at the end of the calendar year, the evaluation period shall be extended until any accumulated under-performance is zero, in other words the under-performance noted in the previous year or years has been covered. In this case, the start date of the new performance evaluation period and the benchmark respectively is the date on which the accumulated under-performance was covered.

Where the Fund performs well, the performance rate shall be finalised at the end of the calendar year and the performance fee shall be paid within 10 days from the end of the calendar year to which it relates.

By way of exception, for existing Classes of units, the performance fee shall be calculated on a date after the relevant amendment to these Regulations is approved.

c) The custodian fee which includes the Custodian's fee and the fee of each third party who holds all or part of the Fund's assets in its safekeeping, up to 0.20% per year, paid at the end of each calendar month, calculated at the average daily value of the Fund.

d) Expenses payable by the Fund in accordance with these Regulations, such as the fee of certified auditors, transaction costs and commission, and as well as commission for members of regulated markets on behalf of the Fund.

e) The cost of publications on the Fund's behalf mandated by the law.

f) Expenses relating to the provision of information to Fund unitholders required by the relevant legislation.

g) Levies payable to the supervisory authorities and any taxes, duties and related charges imposed by the relevant legislation relating to the Fund.

2. The commission, fees and other expenses payable by Fund unitholders per class of units are:

Unit Classes	Classic	Classic D	Classic G	Privilege	Privilege D	Institutional	Institutional D
Maximum redemption fee	2.00%	2.00%	2.00%	2.00%	2.00%	1.00%	1.00%

3. The above fees may be affected in the event that the M.F.M.C. decides to activate the mechanisms referred to in the present and described in the prospectus, depending on the specific arrangements in force in each case.

3. Where the M.F.M.C. decides to distribute all or part of the Fund's revenues and profits, they shall be distributed within 3 months from the end of the relevant accounting period, for which it was decided to distribute them, to all persons who were unitholders in the Fund on the last day of the relevant accounting period.

ARTICLE 11
UNITHOLDERS MEETING AND WINDING UP OF THE FUND

1. Unitholders representing at least 1/20 of the Fund's units are entitled to ask the M.F.M.C. to convene a meeting of unitholders on any issues associated directly or indirectly with management of the Fund. The M.F.M.C. shall be obliged to convene the meeting of unitholders no later than 30 days from receiving the request to convene the meeting of unitholders.
2. The Fund shall be wound up for the following reasons:
 - a) its authorisation was withdrawn by the Hellenic Capital Market Commission,
 - b) after the end of its effective term, where this Regulation states that its fixed term,
 - c) an event specified in these Regulations as bringing about its winding up occurs,

 - g) following a decision of the M.F.M.C..
3. Where the Mutual Fund is wound up, its net assets will be distributed by the Custodian acting on instructions from the M.F.M.C.. After the Mutual Fund's assets have been distributed, a special report will be prepared and signed by the M.F.M.C., the Custodian and the Mutual Fund's certified public accountant. This report shall be sent to the Hellenic Capital Market Commission and posted to the M.F.M.C.'s website and made available to unitholders at points where units in the Fund are sold.
4. If the value of the Fund's net assets compared to the reference value is reduced by 5/10, the Hellenic Capital Market Commission may require that the M.F.M.C. convene a meeting of unitholders in accordance with Article 10 of Law 4099/2012 to wind it up. The benchmark price shall be determined on the first day of each calendar quarter and will be calculated as the arithmetic average of the Fund's net value for the last four quarters. When each new quarter comes to an end, the Fund's total net value in that quarter shall replace the corresponding value from the oldest quarter in calculating the benchmark price. By means of decision of the Hellenic Capital Market Commission convening a meeting of unitholders, the redemption of units shall be suspended. Where the meeting decides to wind up the
